POSITION PAPER GUIDELINES AND DEADLINES

Deadline: 10th July

A position paper should be formatted as follows:

1. The present tense must be used while writing a position paper.
2. The position paper must be written from the viewpoint of the nation or the particular individual the delegate is representing, not from their own.
3. The font should be Times New Roman, the spacing between lines should be 1.15, and the size should be 12.
4. The wording ought to be clear and uncomplicated. Employing tough language will not improve the paper's quality; rather, it will make it more challenging to understand. Short, concise sentences are preferred.
6. The paper should be organized into concise paragraphs and, wherever possible, bullet points should be included.
7. Citations for factual information such as figures, quotes, and facts should be provided.
8. All delegates should thoroughly research the subject at hand. It is ideal to start with the background information provided by the relevant committees. All delegates should also seek other trustworthy sources of information in addition to the background guide as part of their research rather than solely relying on it. When conducting research, shaky sources like Wikipedia should be avoided.
9. Delegates should consider including statements about the topic from renowned world leaders.
10. While creating the official document, delegates are recommended to use the nation's official seal or Coat of Arms as a watermark or signature.

Any delegate who misses the deadline will be subject to a negative evaluation of their position paper by the Executive Board of their respective committee. The Executive Board will mark the position papers of their respective committees. Position papers containing instances of plagiarism will be penalized. IPC delegates don't need to present a position paper. The deadline for the submission of the position paper is on the 10th of July. All requests for extensions of the
